Therese is a well-rounded management professional with a proven track record building and developing highly successful teams. Holding a Master's Degree in Organizational Change, Therese understands the critical role leaders have in impacting their organization. She works to create learning environments where individuals feel safe to stretch their limits for personal and organizational growth. Understanding the individual and “what’s their why?”, enables Therese to build a foundation of trust and partnership with her clients. She is passionate about helping as many people as possible tap into their true potential!

Therese has had the opportunity to work in a variety of organizations and industries, from small, privately owned organizations to Fortune 10 publicly traded companies, in the areas of healthcare, technology, life sciences, real estate financial services, and retail. Therese’s expertise focuses around promoting cultures that put people at the center. She specializes in the work of “human change”, empowering leaders today to develop the next generation of leaders for tomorrow.
